10th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

10th June 2018

R) With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Alleluia, alleluia! If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him. Alleluia!

Monday - St Barnabas the Apostle

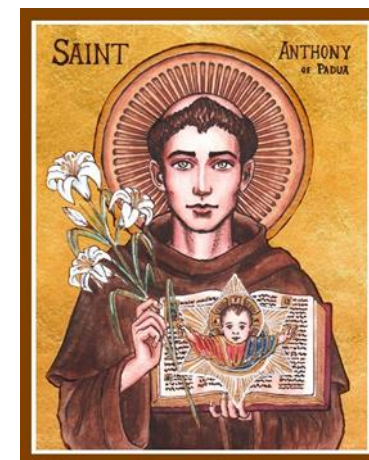

Saint Barnabas was born in Cyprus. He was one of the early converts in Jerusalem and vouched for St Paul when he appeared before the elders there. He accompanied Paul on his first missionary journey and later went to Cyprus with his cousin John Mark (Mark the evangelist) to preach the gospel there. He was probably martyred at Salamis in Cyprus, some time before the year 61.

Wednesday – St. Anthony of Padua

Saint Antony was first of all an Augustinian monk, but he was so impressed by the martyrdom of five Franciscans who had been spreading the faith in Morocco that he became a Franciscan friar himself, so that he could preach the gospel in Africa too. Illness obliged him to leave Morocco, and a storm then drove his ship to Sicily, so that he found himself taking part in the General Chapter of the Franciscans in 1221, where he met Saint Francis of Assisi himself. His preaching career then took him to northern Italy and southern France, then a stronghold of the Albigensian heresy. Later he returned to Italy, to Padua, where he was an outstanding preacher and the first Franciscan theologian. His sermons are full of gentleness, but he reproved the wicked with fearless severity – especially backsliding clergy and the oppressors of the weak. His shrine is a centre of pilgrimage, and he is also the patron saint of the lost and found.

VISITORS: We welcome all the Visitors to the Parishes!

SPECIAL COLLECTION: 1st July we will be collecting for Peter's Pence (Please do not use GA envelopes). Our next Special Collection will be on 15th July for the Bishop's Fund (Please use your GA envelopes)

BUS TO OBAN: I have booked a Bus to take us to Oban for the Ordination Mass of Deacon Emmanuel on 21st June. There are 14 seats. Mass is at 7pm so we will be leaving around 4pm and return around 10pm. Oban Parish is organising the spread in the Parish Hall afterwards so no one will starve! Speak to me to book a seat – limited number!

MEETING WITH BISHOP MCGEE: Spiritual/Pastoral priorities of the diocese – Deanery Meetings for the Laity. We are invited to select five parishioners from each Parish to meet with the Bishop at Deanery level when we can discuss the four proposed priorities. It would be advantageous if the representatives were a mixture of age and background. Each meeting will only last for two hours. The venue and date is 23rd June at St. John's, Caol, 1-3pm. Please speak to me if you would like to represent your Parish.

PARISH FINANCE COMMITTEES: Can I ask the members to speak to me to organise the meeting and discuss the matters presented by the Diocese. I suggest both Parish Committees meet together on that issue since it is an 'external' matter not directly connected with individual Parish Finance. I suggest we meet on Tuesday, 19th June after Mass (5.30pm). The Diocese has also requested a meeting with the Treasurer on 26th June in the Club Room in Arisaig with Mingarry, Morar, Arisaig and Skye Parish Finance Committees at 11am. Presence is 'mandatory'.

WE PRAY FOR THE SICK: There are a lot of people not well at the moment and require our constant prayers and support.

Almighty and Eternal God, You are the everlasting health of those who believe in You. Hear us for Your sick servants for whom we implore the aid of Your tender mercy, that being restored to bodily health, they may give thanks to You in Your Church. Through Christ our Lord.

ARISAIG PARISH:

CAMPING WITH GOD: Once again we welcome Polish People who are spending some time on Retreat in Arisaig. They will be using the Chapel House.

FUNDRAISING CONTINUES:

- Thursday, 21st June – Produce Fair in Astley Hall. We need volunteers for helping out. Please speak to Anne Bernadette MacMillan for details. We need volunteers for serving, baking, sandwiches... etc. Not a lot of time so please consider helping out.
- Tuesday, 10th July at 7.30pm – Book Launch, Astley Hall. Author Angus MacDonald will be in conversation with Mairi Orr about his new book We fought for Ardnish-the follow up to his best-selling first novel Ardnish was Home, both set around the Ardnish peninsula in Lochaber. Tickets £5, includes a glass of wine. Reserve your places, contact Mairi Orr. Funds raised for restoration work at St Mary's RC Church Arisaig. We might need some bakers to make the evening more pleasant.

- August – Sale of works. Details to be disclosed. Please speak to Anne and Hugh MacDonald for details. We need volunteers.

MORAR PARISH:

CHURCH LOTTERY: Have you bought your ticket today? It is a great way of showing support.

FIRST COMMUNIONS: Congratulations and many thanks to our young Communicants! Thank you for help with the Liturgy (Church, Sacristy, Altar Servers) and for preparing nice refreshments afterwards!

ELAINE MACKAY RIP: It was very upsetting to hear of Elaine's passing. She was devoted to her family and she is in the hearts of many people. Funeral will take place on Friday, 15th June at 1pm in Morar. Eternal rest...

DOUGIE MACDOUGALL RIP: Funeral will take place on Tuesday at 12 noon in Mallaig.

Where Words Fail, Music Speaks

A Charity Concert, raising vital funds for the Highland Hospice, will be in memory of Joan MacKintosh of Roy Bridge. Joan, who died in April last year, was a much-loved committee member, fundraiser and piano teacher at Lochaber Music School. Her Music School colleagues and friends, along with distinguished former pupils, are coming together on Sunday, June 10th at 7.30pm to present a most beautiful concert in St Margaret's Church, Roy Bridge.

The programme will feature classical and traditional music performed by some of Lochaber's finest musicians, as soloists and in ensemble. Highlights will include Joan's daughter Rhona, a very talented violinist presently studying Medicine, who will be playing the slow movement from Bruch's Scottish Fantasy. Other soloists include Ingrid Henderson (Clarsach), Clare Reynolds (Cello), Helena Rose (Violin), Mark Reynolds (Tuba), Francesca Rose (Cello), Deirdre and Dougie Beck (Fiddle and Pipes), Hazel Rose (Soprano Saxophone), Peter Rose (Piano) and Catherine Cameron (Piano).

The programme will also bring back together former members of the Music School's highly successful National Mod award-winning Traditional Music Group: Hannah Macrae, Helena Rose, Rhona MacKintosh, Ruari Edmond, Fergus Munro and Kirstin MacAdam. Completing the line-up for the concert programme are Music School colleagues, former BBC Welsh National Orchestra violinists Sarah and David Murray, alongside new Roy Bridge resident, cellist Beverley Place.

This concert promises to be something very special indeed - a fitting tribute indeed to a very, very special lady! Admission to the concert is by donation.
