Sunday 10am: Donald McDonell RIP; Sunday 12noon:

VISITORS: Welcome to all our Visitors!

WE PRAY FOR THE SICK: There are a lot of people not well at the moment and require our constant prayers and support.

Almighty and Eternal God, You are the everlasting health of those who believe in You. Hear us for Your sick servants for whom we implore the aid of Your tender mercy, that being restored to bodily health, they may give thanks to You in Your Church. Through Christ our Lord.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS: Special Collection, 12th/13th February for Diocesan Pastoral Fund (use Parish GA Envelopes). Following, 26th/27th March for SCIAF (do not use Parish GA Envelopes)

ST. PATRICK'S WEEKDAY MASSES: Weekday Masses resumed last Wednesday at 10am.

FR PAUL: It was lovely to have Fr Paul with us. Many thanks for his help with the Sacraments.

FROM THE BISHOPS: The obligation for Catholics to celebrate Sunday as a Holy Day by gathering together for Mass will be restored from the First Sunday in Lent, Sunday 6th March. Given the easing of restrictions in every other walk of life, the Church looks forward to welcoming Catholics back to Holy Mass. As always, the obligation does not apply to those who are sick and their carers or to those aware of their greater vulnerability to the virus. May the continuing recovery of our country bring new hope to us all especially those who are ill, those who mourn loved ones, those who are apprehensive and those who have sustained us in so many ways throughout the Pandemic. We, the Bishops of Scotland, take this opportunity to thank our clergy and our parish volunteers for all their efforts. May our Lenten journey this year lead us to a renewed appreciation of our Catholic faith, of the celebration of the Eucharist and of the presence of the Risen Christ who is always at our side.

ASH WEDNESDAY: We will be celebrating Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent on 2nd March. Masses will be celebrated at St. Patrick's at 10am and St. Mary's at 7pm. In Lent we will be resuming Eucharistic Adoration in Morar on Friday's. Stations of the Cross will be celebrated in the week after 1st Sunday of Lent.

DIOCESAN TAX/LEVY: It looks as if my joy was premature. In January the Diocese charged Morar £628 and Arisaig £568. Huge setback. Electricity bill in Morar, Mallaig and Canna for the Church was £707, heating oil between Morar and Mallaig £1200. This is just to give you an idea of ongoing expenditure. Thank you for everything you are doing to help. I know that situation is difficult for all.

NEW ARCHBISHOP OF GLASGOW: On Friday 4 February 2022 Pope Francis appointed Bishop William Nolan, as Archbishop of Glasgow. The new Archbishop will succeed Archbishop Philip Tartaglia who died in January 2021. Bishop Nolan is currently the Bishop of Galloway. The archbishop elect will take possession of the Archdiocese during a Mass in Saint Andrew's Cathedral at 12 noon on Saturday 26th February. Reacting to the announcement, Bishop Nolan said: "I feel overwhelmed by the trust Pope Francis is putting in me by appointing me as Archbishop of Glasgow. It will be wrench for me to leave Galloway Diocese where for seven years I have experienced the kindness and friendship of so many people, particularly the clergy. God truly blessed me by sending me to Galloway and I hope that my successor there will be similarly blessed. As I overcome my initial shock at being appointed Archbishop my thoughts now turn to the challenges that lies ahead. I look forward to working with everyone in the Archdiocese, laity and clergy, to carry out the mission that we share of proclaiming God's good news and of bringing the joy of the gospel into the lives of the people of today." Bishop Nolan added: "I am well aware of my own inadequacies and of the difficulties the Church faces today. Thank God therefore that we can sure of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit in the Church. As I leave the Diocese of Galloway behind, from now on I belong to Glasgow. And I assure the people of Glasgow of my commitment and dedication to them. Please remember me in your prayers."

Welcoming the appointment Mgr. Hugh Bradley, who has been Administrator of the Archdiocese of Glasgow since the death of Archbishop Philip Tartaglia, said: "I am delighted with the appointment of Bishop Nolan. I offer him a warm welcome to the Archdiocese of Glasgow and a promise of prayers on behalf of all the clergy, religious and laity. May our good God bless him with health and strength to lead us in faith."

Commenting on the appointment, Fr. William McFadden, Vicar General of the diocese of Galloway said: "As Bishop of Galloway, Bishop Nolan presented a pastoral vision with a genuinely collaborative approach. He led with humility and determination, inspired by the initiatives of Pope Francis, and focussing on the needs of the Church for the 21st century. This appointment will allow him to serve both the people of Glasgow and the wider Church with the same abilities with which he served us in Galloway for seven valuable years. We will miss him, but appreciate greatly the contribution which he made, and the legacy which he leaves."
