VISITORS: Welcome to all our Visitors!

WE PRAY FOR THE SICK: There are a lot of people not well at the moment and require our constant prayers and support. There are so many people that occupy my thoughts and prayers at the moment. Please. Do not lose your faith in prayer! It works miracles. I am always ready to administer the Sacrament of the Sick whenever you ask. It is not an imposition; I am happy to carry out this ministry. I will always respect your privacy and confidentiality.

Almighty and Eternal God, You are the everlasting health of those who believe in You. Hear us for Your sick servants for whom we implore the aid of Your tender mercy, that being restored to bodily health, they may give thanks to You in Your Church. Through Christ our Lord.

BIRTHDAYS: I am so pleased to have attended Helen Kennedy's Birthday Party after Mass. It was such a wonderful idea to make this surprise for her. Ad multos annos!

VISIT TO EIGG: Bishop McGee will visit Isle of Eigg on the 17th August. I am sure that Parishioners there will give him a warm welcome.

DEANERY MEETING: This has been scheduled for 29th August in Fort William. It will be good to see other priests from the Deanery and discuss current matters surrounding our Diocese.

ADVENT RETREAT: I know we are still a long way from Advent but I wanted to inform you that beginning this year, we will be holding Parish Retreats in preparation for Christmas. This is part of our Spiritual Renewal efforts in the Parish, to follow the guidance from Led by the Spirit. I was able to invite Fr Bernard Fox, a Mill Hill Father and Sister Sally Hyland to lead us in prayer. Our Retreat will take 3 days 12-14 December and will be filled with Spiritual Talks and Guidance for Parishioners. Our Retreat will have one of the most renowned preachers in Britain among Christian Communities! Mark the dates in your calendar 😊

WORLD YOUTH DAY

By Francesca Merlo - Lisbon, Portugal

High emotions filled the air on Wednesday, following days of anticipation and enthusiasm in which throngs of pilgrims descended upon the streets of Lisbon, bearing rucksacks, flags, and sleeping bags.

The city buzzed with a different kind of excitement to that of the days of the young people's arrival, because a different guest was on his way.

As the news of Pope Francis' arrival in Lisbon spread like wildfire, the streets of this already colourful city filled with renewed energy.

Having ended their "Rise Up" catechesis groups, the young pilgrims dispersed throughout the city, filling the roadside from Figo Maduro airport, where Pope Francis landed, to the National Palace in Belem, the venue of the official welcome ceremony.

The Pope's schedule included a momentous meeting with the President of Portugal, Marcelo Rebelo de Sousa, at the Presidential Palace. Subsequently, Pope Francis participated in his first public gathering with Civil Society, Authorities, and members of the Diplomatic Corps, before closing his first day with Vespers with Church ministers. As the day progressed, the youth concluded their morning activities and set out to enjoy their lunch break. Many groups leisurely strolled down the Edward VII Park, which had been the site of the opening mass of World Youth Day the previous night.

however, be bittersweet, as it will be the final event of the five days.

Music and dance filled the air as the final rehearsals took place, setting the stage for a grand event on Thursday afternoon when the pilgrims would once again gather, but this time, in the presence of the Holy Father. The welcome ceremony will, in fact, be the first time that all of the pilgrims will be together with the Holy Father, perhaps one of the most exciting moments of WYD, along with the Vigil, which will,
