VISITORS: Welcome to all our Visitors!

WE PRAY FOR THE SICK: There are a lot of people not well at the moment and require our constant prayers and support. There are so many people that occupy my thoughts and prayers at the moment. Please. Do not lose your faith in prayer! It works miracles. I am always ready to administer the Sacrament of the Sick whenever you ask. It is not an imposition; I am happy to carry out this ministry. I will always respect your privacy and confidentiality. Almighty and Eternal God, You are the everlasting health of those who believe in You. Hear us for Your sick servants for whom we implore the aid of Your tender mercy, that being restored to bodily health, they may give thanks to You in Your Church. Through Christ our Lord.

CHRISM MASS: I bring blessings and newly blessed oils from Oban. It was good to meet with other priests.

ANGELA MACLELLAN RIP: Sad news about Angela. Her Requiem Mass will be celebrated in Morar on the 26th March at 12 noon with Cremation to follow in Inverness on the following day. We offer our prayers for Angela and her family.

FR RODDY JOHNSTON RIP: Requiem Mass will take place in Oban on the 3rd April at 10am, with burial at Glen Nevis around 1pm. He is indeed a great loss to our Diocese.

ST PATRICK'S THANK YOU: Lovely tea/coffee at the back of St. Patrick's last Sunday. It got me thinking – maybe we should make it a regular monthly occurrence? We would not need as much baking and things as for special occasions but just have an opportunity to meet and talk to each other. Maybe something we could also think of in Arisaig after Mass? We would need coordinators to organise the rota, but we managed to organise Soup Kitchen, we can do so much more!

REPAIRS: More problems in the Chapel House in Arisaig, leaks, leaks, leaks... I really find it very uncomfortable to constantly depend on John MacKay but he is the best! I hope he will find more time and patience for us. We have already opened up for the season and have a lot of bookings coming in. Welcoming visitors is not only an opportunity to increase our revenue and invest into the fabric, but it also gives us a great opportunity to engage with people of various backgrounds and religions. A lot of them leave the place with a completely different view of the Catholic Church. Times when we could openly discuss religious matters on the street is long gone, but if our guests ask me questions... it creates an opportunity. It is very much a mission for me, even though it is an extra job (full-time). Thank you to all our Parishioners for your help and support with visitors.

NEW GIFT AID ENVELOPES: Envelopes have arrived and should be at the back of the Church soon to collect. I am sorry I did not have time to organise the labels and records yet.

Bishops' Conference of Scotland Spring Meeting 2024

From Monday 11th till Wednesday 13th March, the Bishops of Scotland met at Schoenstatt Retreat Centre, Clachan of Campsie for their Spring meeting. Bishop Francis Dougan, newly ordained Bishop of Galloway, came along for the first time and also Canon Kevin Golden, Diocesan administrator of Dunkeld attended for the final time, prior to the episcopal ordination of Fr Martin Chambers on 27th April in Dundee. Also present were Bishop Kenneth Nowakowski, Bishop of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church in the UK and Bishop Mar Joseph Srampickal of the Syro-Malabar Catholic Eparchy.

Topics discussed included current consultations at Holyrood regarding buffer zones and assisted suicide, ecumenism, including the recent joint pilgrimage of Catholic and Anglican Bishops to Rome and Canterbury for the Octave of Christian Unity, a presentation of the books of the new translation of the lectionary that will be launched in parishes from Advent 2024, by the publishers, the Catholic Truth Society, planning for national pilgrimages in Carfin and St Ninian's Cave later in the summer, the training of seminarians, ongoing formation of the clergy, safeguarding, care of creation, the new Scottish Catholic Museum and Archive, marriage, family and life issues, Catholic education, the training of deacons and finance.

The Conference was also joined by Fr Bruno Le Peu, of the Paris Foreign Mission Society who spoke about the Catholic Hong Kong communities in Scotland and also by Shabir Beg of the Scottish Ahlul Bayt Society to mark the anniversary of Pope Francis' visit to Iraq.

There was also the opportunity for the Conference to celebrate Mass in the Schoenstatt Shrine and pray for the Church in Scotland.
